

VILLA 6

A private retreat in a tropical paradise

The most exclusive experience offered by the Barracuda Group, the private houses known as Villas look like they're sprouting out of the Atlantic Forest, such is the extent of their symbiosis with the natural surroundings.

Each property possesses its own personality reflecting the interior design and natural scenery around it. All of them contain a charming living room, integrated kitchen, veranda with panoramic view of the ocean and Atlantic Forest and infinity edge pool. Fully equipped with high-quality household utensils and appliances, the Villas reflect the Barracuda concept of hospitality with personalized services provided by the Hotel. So that the days there are even more memorable, each Villa counts on a team of caretakers specialized in the art of reception, responsible for the administration and for preparing the menu of the day based on fresh local ingredients - in addition to support from the Hosts and Barracuda Guest Relations team.
